Important Information

This Financial Services Guide (“FSG”) is intended to inform you of certain basic matters relating to our relationship, prior to us providing you with a financial service. The matters covered by the FSG include, who we are, how we can be contacted, what services we are authorised to provide to you, how we (and any other relevant parties) are remunerated, details of any potential conflicts of interest, and details of our internal and external dispute resolution procedures, along with how you can access them.

Shartru Wealth advisers are authorised in areas they are qualified in, as such they may provide general or personal advice to you. In the event you receive general advice from your adviser, you will not receive a Statement or Record of Advice.

Where you first receive personal advice (advice that takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs) you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice. The Statement of Advice will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about fees, commissions and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice. If our representative provides further advice to you and your personal circumstances have not significantly changed, and that further advice is related to the advice we provided to you in a previous Statement of Advice and we do not give that further advice to you in writing, you may request a copy of the record of that further advice at any time up to 7 years from the date our representative gave the further advice to you.

You can request the record of the advice by contacting the representative or us in writing or by telephone or by email.

In the event we make a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities), we must also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product, which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.

It is intended that this FSG should assist you in determining whether to use any of the services described in this document. You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will provide you (whether general or personal), and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services.

When you receive advice

Your adviser is an Authorised Representative of Shartru Wealth Management Pty Ltd. They may also operate under a Corporate Authorised Representative; those details are in their Financial Services Guide (Adviser Profile). Shartru Wealth and your adviser are responsible for the financial services provided to you.

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions, for example by telephone, email or other means.

Your adviser maintains a record of your personal profile, which includes details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. They also maintain records of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to examine your file, we ask that you make a request in writing and allow up to fourteen (14) working days for the information to be forwarded. There may be a charge for this. Shartru Wealth is committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of our privacy policy can be viewed at www.shartruwealth.com.au.
